Reporting to the United Nations Register of Conventional Arms

A note verbale concerning "Transparency in armaments" (ODA/09-2011/TIA) was issued on 3 March 2011. With reference to General Assembly resolution 64/54 (A/RES/64/54), it calls upon Member States to provide by Tuesday, 31 May 2011, national reports to the United Nations Register of Conventional Arms on international transfers of conventional arms and also invites, on an optional basis, to submit information on procurement through national production, military holdings and on international transfers of small arms and light weapons (SALW).

In accordance with the aforementioned resolution, Member States are also requested to present with their national reports the views on whether the inclusion of SALW as a main category in the Register would increase its relevance and influence on decisions to participate.

For further information and assistance, please contact Mr. Yuriy Kryvonos, Political Affairs Officer, Conventional Arms Branch, Office for Disarmament Affairs (e-mail kryvonos@un.org; tel. 1 (917) 367-1096).

Communications to the President of the Security Council

Communications addressed to the President of the Security Council should be delivered to the Offices of the Security Council Secretariat Branch (room 08083, 730 Third Avenue (between 45th and 46th Streets); tel. 1 (212) 963-5258).

Web site of the presidency

The Web site of the presidency of the Security Council can be visited at <www.un.org/sc/presidency.asp>.

Recorded information

Recorded information about previously unscheduled meetings and consultations of the whole of the Security Council may be obtained by calling 1 (212) 963-8530, or by clicking on "Daily Programme" on the Web site of the Security Council <www.un.org/Docs/sc>.

Prepared statements

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered. Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber.

Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; room SA-1B12).

Economic and Social Council

Commission on Science and Technology for Development
Fourteenth session
United Nations Office at Geneva

8th meeting — Priority themes . . . . . [3]

(a) Measuring the impact of information and communications technology for development

(b) Technologies to address challenges in areas such as agriculture and water

Draft resolution

Science and technology for development

The Commission had before it a draft text, submitted by the Chair, H.E. Ms. Sherry Ayittey (Ghana), which was circulated in English only.

A statement was made by the facilitator, Mr. Vijaya Kumar (Sri Lanka), in which he reported on the outcome of informal consultations on the draft resolution.

Following statements by the representatives of Portugal, the United States, Peru, China, the Philippines, Lesotho, Austria and Brazil, the facilitator revised the text.

The Chair informed the Commission that the draft text contained no programme budget implications.

The Commission adopted the draft text, as orally revised, and recommended it to the Economic and Social Council for adoption.

Draft decision

Gender Advisory Board to the Commission for Science and Technology for Development

The Commission had before it a draft text submitted by the Chair, H.E. Ms. Sherry Ayittey (Ghana), which was circulated in English only.

Following a statement by the representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran, the Commission adopted the text and recommended it to the Economic and Social Council for adoption.

The Commission thus concluded its consideration of agenda item 3.

Review of the methods of work of the Commission . . . . . [5]

Draft decisions on the participation of non-governmental organizations, academic entities and business sector entities, including the private sector, in the work of the Commission

The facilitator, Mr. Alvaro Galvani (Brazil), reported on the outcome of informal consultations held on the draft decisions.

Statements were made by the representatives of Sri Lanka, the Islamic Republic of Iran, the United States, Portugal, Austria, Peru, the Philippines, Costa Rica, China, Chile and the Dominican Republic.

The representative of the secretariat of UNCTAD made a clarification.

The Commission deferred consideration of the draft decisions.

Provisional agenda and documentation for the fifteenth session of the Commission [7]

The Commission had before it a text of the provisional agenda and documentation for its fifteenth session, which was circulated in English only.

The Secretary revised the text.

Statements were made by the representatives of Sri Lanka, Costa Rica, Peru, Malta, Togo, the United States, the Philippines, the Dominican Republic, Brazil, the United Republic of Tanzania, Austria and Peru.

The Secretary and the representative of the secretariat of UNCTAD made clarifications in response to questions raised by delegations.

The Commission approved the provisional agenda and the documentation for its fifteenth session, as further revised, and recommended them to the Economic and Social Council for adoption.

The Commission thus concluded its consideration of agenda item 7.

Organization of work

Statements were made by the representatives of the Philippines and Brazil.
